15. Driving Permits: Support in obtaining Italian driving permits or conversion of foreign driving licenses.

How to move forward

1) Apply for our free Information Kit Package

Please feel free to write us at italy@graziottolegal.com to receive our information kit and the rates applicable to your specific case.

2) Fill-in and send us the 2 mandatory forms

Before any further interactions and/or receive any documents, we have to collect the information required by law: just duly fill-in and send us the two mandatory forms you'll find in the information kit.

Please note that no further interactions, answers, follow-up or information will be ever given before the 2 mandatory forms are received duly filled-in from you.

3) We'll get in touch to ask some relevant information

Only after you've sent us the two mandatory forms duly filled-in and signed, with copy of a valid document for identification, we can get in touch with you and ask sundry information and documents to afford your case.

4) Book a first consultation with a lawyer

Once we are sure we can help you, we can plan a first consultation either at our offices, or online. This will provide you with a clear picture for your case.

5) Pass the problem on to us

With the first consultation with us, we can advise you about the possible solutions, the applicable rates for our assistance and any of our available package based on a lump sum that fits for your needs. Then you may decide to give us the assignment to assist you.

Why Choose Us?

At Graziotto Legal, we prioritize your needs and deliver personalized solutions with professionalism and integrity. With our deep understanding of Italian immigration law and commitment to client satisfaction, we ensure your path is seamless and successful.
