Excerpt from D.P.R. n. 445/2000: Art. 38 Procedures for sending and signing applications – [...] 3. Applications and declarations in lieu of affidavits to be submitted to public administration bodies or to managers or operators of public services shall be signed by the person concerned in the presence of the employee in charge or signed and submitted together with an uncertified photocopy of an identity document of the signatory. A photostat copy of the document shall be placed in the file. A copy of the application signed by the interested party and a copy of the identity document can be sent electronically; [...] Art. 47 Declarations in lieu of affidavit - 1. An affidavit concerning status, personal qualities or facts to which the person concerned is directly aware shall be replaced by a declaration made and signed by the person concerned in accordance with the procedures laid down in Article 38. 2. The declaration made in the declarant's own interest may also relate to the states, personal qualities and facts relating to other persons of which he has direct knowledge. 3. Without prejudice to the exceptions expressly provided for by law, in relations with the public administration and with concessionaires of public services, all states, personal qualities and facts not expressly indicated in Article 46 shall be proved by the person concerned by means of a declaration in lieu of an affidavit. 4. Unless the law expressly provides that the report to the Judicial Police Authority is a necessary prerequisite to activate the administrative procedure for the issuance of duplicate identification documents or in any case certifying the personal status and qualities of the person concerned, the loss of the documents themselves shall be proven by the person requesting a duplicate by means of a substitute declaration. Art. 75 Forfeiture of benefits – 1. Without prejudice to the provisions of Article 76, if the check referred to in Article 71 reveals the untruthfulness of the content of the declaration, the declarant shall forfeit any benefits resulting from the measure issued on the basis of the untruthful declaration. 1-bis. The false declaration also entails the revocation of any benefits already paid as well as the prohibition of access to contributions, loans and facilities for a period of 2 years from when the administration adopted the deed of forfeiture. However, interventions, including economic ones, in favour of minors and for family and social situations of particular hardship remain firm. Art. 76 Criminal Provisions - 1. Any person who makes false statements, forms false documents or makes use of them in the cases provided for in this consolidated law shall be punished in accordance with the Criminal Code and the special laws on the subject. ((The penalty ordinarily provided for in the Criminal Code is increased from one-third to one-half. 2. The production of a document containing data that no longer corresponds to the truth is equivalent to the use of a false document. 3. Affidavits made pursuant to Articles 46 and 47 and declarations made on behalf of the persons referred to in Article 4(2) shall be deemed to have been made to a public official.
